TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN-----

I arrived at Rajneeshpuram on June 20th as a festival participant.

It is a real blessing to be here and share in all that is happening.

Thousands of acres of deserted and badly overgrazed land becoming transformed into green valleys.

What was once known as "the big Muddy Ranch" has now become one of the most wonderful and fastest growing agricultural community in the U.S. Happy faces, loving people, much care for each of its inhabitants.

From a medical clinic to delicious food to comfortable housing. This place, "Rajneeshpuram", is really something.

Two lakes, an airport, lots of modern technology...cows, chickens. A truck farm which provides all the necessary produce for the entire community and much, much more. Too numerous to describe totally. I almost forgot. A university. The Rajneesh International Meditation University. Also the Rajneesh Institute for Therapy. It is really amazing...just wonderful.

All of this became possible because of the presence of one man. Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh.

Without him none of this would have happened. But it did. And here it is.

If Washington or Lincoln and all the other great men, who contributed in making our country what it is today, were here, they would receive Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh with open hands and minds.

I came to the United States in 1962 from Argentina. I've been living in New York ever since. One of the happiest days of my life was when the INS allowed me to become a citizen. As an American, I will be forever grateful to the INS if they would allow Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh to remain in this great country of ours.

Sincerely yours,
