To whom it may concern,

Let me tell you about the place I live in at the moment: it's a sangassin-commune, so it's not an ordinary commune, but a place where you can be yourself, let your energie flow and work in such a way that is a meditation and put all your love into it. You can compare it with worshipping in a temple that's what it means to live in a Buddhafield. It's an oasis around an enlightened Master.

Last month my daughter and I visited Rajneeshpuram (Oregon), the city, THE Buddhafield, that sangyasinus are creatin around our Master Bhagwan.

I must say that it was the most beautiful, most relaxed and most alive place I've ever been. We came there to celebrate the Festival - and it really has been celebratin everything all the time.

There was so much love and care for everything and everybody. I could feel all the people made Bhagwan's message of love come true ...

You know the feeling that you can trust,
what ever happens, you don't even have to think about it or worry about it,
it's all okay!

Over here in Holland I can still feel
the love, the silent presence of Bhagwan.
And all the work we do here, all the other religious activities we are doing
are inspired by Him.

I hope you can see what a beautiful
energie Bhagwan awakes in us all.
