To whom it may concern:

My life was happening between the office, the house, my children and my husband. Reading was my favorite distraction. One day in a supermarket I discovered a book with the title: Dynamic Meditation. I took it and read the name of the author Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. I bought it also not knowing him, because the cover was attracting me. At home I started reading the first pages and suddenly something happened to me, it was like the breaking of a dam. These words, these thoughts, this "man". The joy was immense. I laughed, cried, danced, repeating to myself: I have found him, he has found me, finally.

This is the beginning. Now I am a sannyasin since two years. I took sannyas six months after buying His book. It was in 1981. The love between me and my master has changed my life. Every day my thoughts are with him.

The other marvellous thing which happened, was the moment I could see Bhagwan. After one year of being a sannyas I went to Rajneeshpuram. I was utterly excited. I had recognized him without seeing him and now that I could meet him?

When I saw him it was the same explosion I had the day I opened His book.
